

NFFN'S 5TH ANNUAL

HARVEST FEST

FOLK / ART / PALATKA

SATURDAY / OCTOBER 24

11AM-5PM / FREE

PALATKA RIVERFRONT PARK

HELLO, PALATKA.

SATURDAY ON THE RIVER

By eleven o'clock the first songs will be coming from the riverfront stage, and we hope you'll make a day of it. Bring a chair, catch the music, wander through the art, and see what the food trucks are cooking up. We're glad you're spending your Saturday with us.

FOLK IS NOT A MUSEUM.

The North Florida Folk Network has always been about keeping folk and acoustic music part of everyday life. Harvest Fest is one way we do it, inviting musicians and listeners to spend an afternoon together on the Palatka riverfront.

OPENING SET

Larry Mangum opens the festival at 11, drawing on years of performing in North Florida's folk music scene. Settle in early and catch his set before the afternoon gets underway.

12 PM

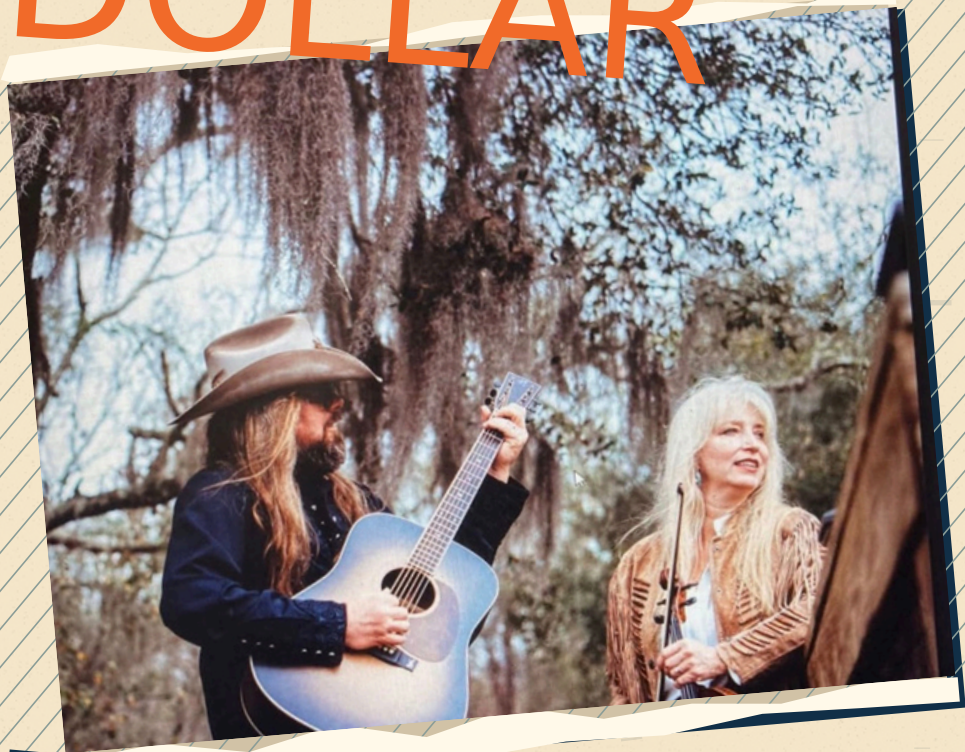

FRONT PORCH MARMALADE

12PM / MAIN STAGE

Front Porch Marmalade draws from bluegrass, old-time, folk, and Americana, following the songs wherever they lead. With family harmonies and plenty of instrumental interplay, their noon set should feel right at home on the riverfront.

SAYLOR DOLLAR

1 PM / MAIN STAGE

Saylor Dollar, a husband-and-wife duo from Tallahassee, write songs rooted in Florida, family history, and the people and places that shape a life. Their original music draws from folk, bluegrass, and blues, with an easygoing Americana sound and a storyteller's attention to detail.

JOVIE & THE HONEY- CHUCKLE

2 PM / MAIN STAGE

Hailing from Bostwick, Jovie & the HoneyChuckle bring together award-winning songwriters Stevie Lynne and Joey Anderson. With roots in the Northwest music scene, the duo combines Stevie's unforgettable voice with Joey's seasoned storytelling for a sound all their own.

TAPESTRIES

3 PM / MAIN STAGE

Tapestries grew out of the New Moon Ramblers, a group with thirteen years of music behind it. The band now mixes original songs and familiar favorites with indie folk, Americana, world fusion, and rock, sometimes all in the same set.

4 PM / HEADLINER

RAMBLER KANE

Fresh off a Midwest tour and a festival appearance in Finland, Jacksonville singer-songwriter Rambler Kane brings his distinctive blend of folk, country, and blues to Harvest Fest. Known for his commanding vocals, intricate fingerpicking, and thoughtful songwriting, Kane has shared stages with Trampled by Turtles, Silverada, and BJ Barham of American Aquarium. His latest EP, Sirens and Flames, has landed on several Spotify editorial playlists, adding to the momentum of a career that continues to take him well beyond his Florida roots.

ART IS EVERYWHERE.

ARTS ALLIANCE OF PUTNAM

The Arts Alliance of Putnam is bringing its Art Promenade to Harvest Fest, giving local artists a place alongside the musicians. Take some time between sets to browse their work, meet the people who made it, and see what catches your eye.

Featured Artists

Tracie Thompson — Green Cove Springs
Andrew Hayze — Miami
Raven Moonshadow — Jacksonville
Miles Wickham — Jacksonville
Annora Lemieux — Jacksonville
Rachel Sharpe — Jacksonville
Adrian Rhodes — Jacksonville

MAKE A MARK.

Professional chalk artists will be working right on the pavement, creating pieces visitors can watch take shape throughout the day. There's also a dedicated kids' chalk area, where younger festivalgoers can get their hands colorful and create.

HUNGRY? GOOD.

FOOD TRUCKS + LOCAL VENDORS

Take some time to wander through the festival vendors, where you'll find everything from handmade guitars and wire-wrapped jewelry to crochet creations, tie-dye, original artwork, and one-of-a-kind gifts. Grab a bite from our food vendors, cool off with an iced coffee or smoothie, or try some locally made kombucha. There's plenty to browse, taste, and take home.

BIG LOVE TO OUR SUPPORTERS.

Harvest Fest is made possible through the support of our sponsors, community partners, and the many people who help put the event together. Their contributions keep the festival free and help the North Florida Folk Network bring live folk music to Palatka.
